

An evening of music at St Cyr's

Dursley Male Voice Choir

Dursley Male Voice Choir will be holding an evening of music at St Cyr's church in Stinchcombe on August 26th at 7:30 in aid of Yercombe Lodge.

Yercombe Lodge

Yercombe Lodge is a local charity providing residential, respite and day services for the elderly, frail and disabled of Gloucestershire. It is friendly, homely and small, situated in its own 18 acres of woodlands and gardens, high on the Cotswold escarpment with stunning views across the Severn Vale.

Yercombe Lodge offers a wide range of services from day care, to short respite stays to full residential care as well as a day centre with a wide range of activities, encouraging arts, crafts and a social atmosphere. Yercombe has just announced services for the care of those with mild or early dementia and is raising money to support these services.

Tickets for the concert can be bought for £10 from Phil Sprague (07767 384393), Julie Thomas (07795 037515) or directly from Yercombe Lodge (01453 542513).

If you think you could help this wonderful little local charity in any way then there are plenty of opportunities to volunteer (see <https://www.yercombelodge.co.uk/jobs-volunteering>) please give us a call on 01453 542513 or click on the website link and email us.

Phil Sprague