Candlelit Festive Service of Word & Music

About this years Service

This year it will be as much a Celebration of the Christmas Story due to the current restrictions. Please can you arrive early that so that getting shown to your seat can happen without much queuing.

Notes on Attending the Service

- There is limited capacity in our churches but we won't be issuing tickets. Please arrive in good time; maintain social distancing and follow the instructions of the wardens
- Face masks are mandatory in church, except for those leading, preaching or reading (while speaking) where a physical distance of more than 2 metres can be maintained.
- If possible please bring your own hand sanitiser to clean your hands
