

Mary Stuart

Robert Icke's electrifying update of Schiller's royal drama of

DATE: WEDNESDAY 11th APRIL 2018.

VENUE: THEATRE ROYAL, BATH.

SEATS: Seats are in the stalls.

PICKUP: Stinchcombe Rugby Club at 5.30pm, Stone at 5.45pm

Written in 1800, Mary Stuart deals with the relation between Mary and Elizabeth I, and centres on an imaginary meeting between them. Stevenson and Williams go on stage each night not knowing who is to be Mary and who Elizabeth. That is determined in front of the audience by the spin of a coin – presumably a sovereign.

- An electrifying production – Observer
- Fascinating theatre .. fiercely pertinent, exhilarating potent – The Times
- With subtle, passionate and vigorous acting, this is an intoxicating production–Daily Mail

Download Form here!